National Music Society To Install BG Chapter

Sigma Alpha Iota, national professional fraternity for women in the field of music, will install its one hundred and nineteenth chapter here this week end.

Installation ceremonies for Gamma Omicron chapter will be held at noon, Sunday in the Ohio Suite of the University Union.

Lanning Elected To Court Post

Perry Lanning was elected Chief Justice of the Student Court for 1959-60 during the Court session, Tuesday. He was chosen by the five members of the Court, and he replaces the present Chief Justice, Cromer Smith, who will be graduated in June.

Nine students were found guilty of parking offenses during Tuesday's session. Two others were found guilty of non-registration, and Thomas J. Curbison had his car impounded for one week as a result of a city traffic violation.

LANNING

Sandra Hamer, Harvey Ohman, and James Beard were found guilty of third parking offenses. Miss Hamer and Ohman each were fined $10 and compelled to attend two consecutive Court sessions. Beard's fine was suspended.

Joseph Ungvary, Ernest Weckesser, and Elden Ehrman were found guilty of second parking violations. Weckesser was fined $3 and must attend two consecutive Court sessions. Ungvary and Ehrman were given suspended sentences.

Donald Mielke and Roger Minkoff were found guilty of first parking infractions. Both were fined $1, but Minkoff's fine was suspended. David Fishero and Thomas Black were found guilty of non-registration, and each was fined $25.

Two others, Kenneth Swartz and Neil Boughrer, also were in court. Swartz was found guilty of his first parking offense, but not guilty of an improper sticker display charge. He was fined $1. Boughrer was found not guilty of a parking violation charge.

Three University students are among those signing for the University's Summer Study Abroad, according to Dr. Howard D. Brogan, chairman of the English department and director of the trip.

John Voorhees, Donna Lou Stratton, and Kathryn Ruda, along with Evelyn Reiser, a BGSU graduate, will join a group of area teachers on the travel-study tour.

The group will leave the United States, June 9, and will arrive in England, June 16. It will then tour southern England, Belgium, West Germany, Switzerland, France, and return to England.

During the study program, the group will stay at Lumley Castle near Durham. From July 6 to Aug. 6, they will study the British romantic poets, especially Robert Burns, Sir Walter Scott, William Wordsworth, Samuel Taylor Coleridge, and Lord Byron, according to Dr. Brogan.

Several week-end trips have been scheduled also. Included will be one to the England Lake District associated with Wordsworth and Coleridge; one to Edinburgh, Scotland, and the Robert Burns and Scott border country; the Scottish Trossacks; and Lord Byron's ancestral home, Newstead Abbey, near Nottingham.

The group will return to the United States, Aug. 14.

Tekes To Sponsor Community Project

As a community service project, the Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity will conduct a "sucker day" on the streets of the downtown business area of Bowling Green tonight and tomorrow night.

C. Richard Marsh, Wood County Cancer Crusade chairman, stated that the members of the fraternity will solicit donations and distribute candy suckers to those who contribute.

BG Bike Riders Take To Track In Annual Race

Tomorrow will be one day when fraternity men will be up before 8 a.m. The reason is the ninth annual Delta Upsilon Bike Race.

Won last year by Phi Delta Theta, this year's race promises to be as big as those in past years, with 13 fraternal qualifying riders. Riders, in order to qualify, must have ridden a lap around the course under DU supervision. All riders' names are then checked with the University Health Service to make sure that their medical records are satisfactory.

A good deal of planning and preparation goes into the race. DU men at the corners and at the judging stand will be equipped with walkie-talkies on loan from the Army ROTC. The flags and signs on the course are from the State Highway Department. Both the Bowling Green and the Campus police forces will cooperate in directing traffic off the course.

The race was originated in 1951 at this campus as a 12-hour marathon, with Sigma Alpha Epsilon winning the first race. The idea has spread to other schools, and now DU bike races are annual events there also.

Final Artist Series Show Sunday; Soloist Graves Is Featured Guest

The final Artist Series program of the school year will be held at 8:15 Sunday in the Grand Ballroom. It will feature guest soloist Kay Charles Graves with the University Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Seymour Benstock.

Graves has sung extensively throughout the Midwest, including performances at the Kalamazoo Bach Festival, Rockford Choral Union, University of Chicago, and the St. Louis Bach Society. He recently appeared as soloist with the Chicago Symphony in Brahms' "Requiem." During the past season he was a member of the Lyric Opera in Chicago, as well as a staff member at Bay View Summer College in Michigan.

GRAVES

For his appearance with the University Orchestra, Graves will sing five of the most noted arias in the baritone operatic repertoire. They include two arias from Mozart's "Marriage of Figaro," Valentin's aria from "Faust" by Gounod, the "Cortigiani vil razza" from "Rigoletto" by Verdi, and "Largo al Factotum" from Rossini's "Barber of Seville."

The University Orchestra's featured work will be the noted "Eroica" symphony by Beethoven. Originally dedicated to Napoleon, it was torn up when Beethoven learned that Napoleon had declared himself Emperor of France. It was later rededicated simply "To the memory of a great man" and was Beethoven's own favorite.

Also on the program are "The Overture of an Italian Comedy," by the contemporary English composer, Arthur Benjamin, and "Esperanza Rhapsody," based on the music of Spain. Benjamin's overture is satirical and witty and depicts the moods so prevalent in the settings of the Italian farcical comedy.

The concert is free and no tickets are required.

Alpha Kappa Omega To Be Installed As Alpha Phi Alpha Chapter Tonight

By JOHN CHINN

Alpha Kappa Omega will be formally initiated as a chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha National Fraternity, tonight. This is the most important step AKO has taken since its founding in 1955.

The establishment of an Alpha chapter at the University will also be the realization of a plan and dream first formulated by AKO's founding members.

The 14 men that established Alpha Kappa Omega had a strong hope that the fraternity would affiliate with Alpha Phi Alpha. Their desire was so strong that they incorporated as much as possible of Alpha into their "brain child." Many of the customs and ideals of AKO, along with its colors and songs, are similar, if not identical, to those of Alpha Phi Alpha.

The national fraternity was founded by seven men at Cornell University, Dec. 4, 1906. Their original plan was to form a social-study club, and it is from this that the first chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha was established.

Since that rather insignificant beginning, Alpha Phi Alpha has expanded to include more than 110 undergraduate and 140 graduate chapters, stretching from Yale and Columbia Universities in the East, to Michigan and Ohio State in the Mid-west, and UCLA in the West. In addition, Canada, Bermuda, the British West Indies, and England are sites of Alpha Phi Alpha chapters.

AKO has corresponded with Alpha Phi Alpha for quite some time, through E. G. Weathers, regional director, of Toledo. In early April, the fraternity finally received permission from the national office to begin a period of pledgeship under the direction of Weathers, and Epsilon Alpha and Alpha Xi Lambda, undergraduate and graduate chapters, respectively, in Toledo.

Shortly afterward, AKO was granted permission by the administration and the Interfraternity Council to affiliate with Alpha. Since then, the men of Alpha Kappa Omega have been participating in a rigorous and concentrated pledge program that will end with their initiation and a banquet tonight.

The banquet, to be held in the Pheasant Room of the University Union, is a tradition of Alpha Phi Alpha, and is held after each initiation ceremony.

The program will consist of an invocation given by the Rev. William Ardrey, pastor of St. Paul Zion Church in Toledo; introduction of guests and the guest speaker, Stenson E. Brodies, mid-western vice-president of Alpha; introduction of the new Alpha Phi Alpha members; and a surprise presentation to the new chapter by Wayman Palmer, president of the Toledo graduate chapter. The members will close the program by singing the Alpha Phi Alpha Hymn.

Guests invited include: Pres. Ralph W. McDonald; Wallace W. Taylor Jr., dean of men; Laurence E. Young, Alpha general secretary; Dr. Elden T. Smith, dean of students; Weathers; and Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Jackson, the new chapter's head residents.

Additional Loan Grant Approved For University

Graduates Can Buy Tickets For Lunch Honoring BG Alums

Seniors can now purchase tickets to the annual Alumni Luncheon, being held on Alumni Day, Saturday, June 6, as part of the Commencement activities.

Kenneth Krouse, director of alumni affairs, has appointed a committee to handle the ticket sales, consisting of Lew Moorhead, chairman; Carolyn Krukemyer; Don Katz; and Norm Nunamaker.

Tickets are $2 per person, and may be purchased in the Alumni Office in the University Union, or from representatives appointed by Moorhead in the various housing units.

Krouse is urging graduates to attend the luncheon to become acquainted with alumni of the University who live in the areas where they will be working or living, and also to become familiar with the work of the Alumni Association. During the luncheon, special recognition will be given to the graduating class, retiring faculty members, and classes holding reunions that day.

The housing units and the persons selling tickets are as follows: Alpha Kappa Omega, Carlos Jackson; Alpha Tau Omega, Nuna-maker; Delta Tau Delta, Carmen Angelosante; Delta Upsilon, Lynn Koester; Kappa Sigma, Jack Cawthra; Phi Delta Theta, Ray Bennett;

Phi Kappa Psi, Bob Kinstle; Phi Kappa Tau, Dick Rohrs; Pi Kappa Alpha, Ron Harmon; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Dale Pittman; Sigma Chi, Roger Bow; Sigma Nu, George Menker; Sigma Phi Epsilon, Bob Mazzei; Tau Kappa Epsilon, Herb Edwards; Theta Chi, Bob Rask;

Delta Zeta, Pat Snider; Gamma Phi Beta, Carole Craig; Kappa Delta, Brenda Boyee; Phi Mu, Beth Adams; and Prout Hall, Yvonne Rudd.

Under the National Defense Education Act of 1958, which created loans to students in institutions of higher learning, the University received $27,000.

The purpose is to make available to students, loan funds at a low interest rate.

The University had to pledge $3,000 to the fund to receive the money, making the total $30,000. At the present time, all of the original $30,000 has been loaned or has been earmarked for loans.

An additional amount has been approved by the House and Senate of the Federal government, but the exact amount that Bowling Green will receive isn't known.

As of May 1, loans totaling $20,500 from the additional grant have been tentatively approved for new freshmen next year. There also are applications on file for upperclassmen totaling $27,000, according to Robert McKay, student financial aid counselor.

Although there have been many applications, students who can show a definite need for assistance are encouraged to apply at the Student Financial Aids office.

Special consideration is being given to students in education, mathematics, science, engineering, and the modern languages, as emphasized in the loan act, but others also are urged to apply.

To be eligible for a loan, a student must show a definite need, be capable of maintaining good academic standing, and maintaining full-time attendance.

No student will be granted a loan over $1,000 for any one year, or over $5,000 in all.

Beginning one year after a student ceases to be a full-time student, he will be charged simple interest at the rate of three per cent per year on the unpaid balance.

Up to one-half of any loan repayment can be cancelled if the student becomes a full-time teacher in a public elementary or secondary school.

Interested persons are asked to contact the Student Financial Aid Office, 214 Administration Bldg.

Building A Foundation

(This editorial is written by another member of the NEWS staff who is a candidate for the editorship in 1959-60. Other candidates' editorials will follow.)

One year ago, the year's work of a committee of ten persons was presented to the students of the University for approval. To be approved was a constitution which would institute a form of student government at Bowling Green. It was overwhelmingly passed by the student body. Having completed its first year, it is now time that student government be surveyed as to its problems and accomplishments this year.

The purpose of the organization is to provide capable and responsible student government in campus life and activities. A year ago, there were many who complained of the lack of student leadership in government on campus. Doubtless if there were a poll taken today, there would be many who would express the same feelings.

In general, however, it would seem that student government has been successful after its initial year. It has been said of the Student Council that it does nothing, nor is capable of doing anything. True, the Student Council at Bowling Green may not be as active or as powerful as it is at some colleges and universities, but it must be remembered that miracles don't happen overnight.

The present Council was handed a constitution and was told to go to work. There was nothing it could consult to find that if it did this, or did that, it would achieve its purpose. The Council had to set precedents and work until it found what it thought was the best method. It made mistakes, but under the circumstances, what person or organization wouldn't? Few people would build a house without a foundation, but yet some people feel that this Council is supposed to spring forth and fulfill its purpose without getting the benefit of establishing a foundation.

Now the student government has had a year's experience. Its board and committee chairmen now at least have an idea of what to do and how to do it. Undoubtedly a good many things will be changed in the coming year and in the following years, in regard to policy and methods. One year, however, is not sufficient time to allow anyone to claim the student government perfect, nor condemn it as worthless. The ensuing years will tell the true value of the work of those ten committee members who drafted the constitution and of those who have composed student government during its first year.

Graduating Seniors Make Contacts Through Early Campus Interviews

"Seniors should take advantage of the interviews on campus, since this is the only opportunity they may have when employers come to them," says James C. Galloway, placement officer.

During an average year, 125 to 250 representatives of companies visit the campus to interview students for various positions. Most of these interviews are screened and a candidate may be invited to the home office for further interviews if a company is interested.

At the beginning of each semester, a list of companies planning to interview seniors is published.

Galloway emphasized a few points to be remembered by persons being interviewed.

A student should keep in mind why he would be valuable to a company; he should dress appropriately, which means a conservative dress or suit; and he should not chew gum or smoke during an interview. The student should shake the employer's hand firmly and announce his name distinctly. Above all, promptness is important.

The interviewer takes the initiative and the student should be guided by his attitude. Talking directly to the employer, and avoiding criticism of other employers or instructors, and mention of personal problems, are important points to remember.

Many questions such as salary, working conditions, advancement, and fringe benefits will be answered in the company literature. However, he added, questions about the company products may awaken the interviewer's interest.

Negative factors that are considered during an employment interview are poor posture, poor scholastic record, no questions asked about the job, lack of planning for a career, failure to participate in activities, over-emphasis on money, a sloppy application blank, and lack of tact, maturity, or courtesy.

A few of the numerous questions that the interviewer frequently asks include:

Why do you think you might like to work for our company?

What extracurricular offices have you held?

Why did you choose your college major?

What job in our company do you want to work toward?

With all these points in mind, a student should not be ill at ease or at a loss for words when an interviewer asks the first question.

Pershing Rifles Plans Final Trip

Sunday, the Pershing Rifles will be making its last trip of the year as it travels to Dayton to take part in the Dayton Invitational Drill Meet. This meet is held annually in conjunction with the Strategic Air Command Air Show, which is held at Wright-Patterson Field. This event annually draws 50,000 persons.

The PRs will drill in the morning and witness the air power display in the afternoon.

Making their last trip with the unit will be seniors Larry Shine and Kenneth Dawson. Pershing Rifle sponsor Cloya Scott will also accompany the unit.

Students 'Shot' In BG Hospital

Rocky Mountain spotted fever shots are being given to all geology students attending the summer field trip, according to Dr. Louis Nowack, staff physician at the University Health Service. Rocky Mountain spotted fever, transmitted by the bite of a tick, is almost always fatal, therefore these shots are absolutely necessary, said Nowack.

The geology students, along with several others who are going on a camping and canoeing trip in the western United States, also are receiving tetanus and typhoid shots.

Air Force and Army ROTC students attending summer encampments throughout the United States have also been given smallpox, tetanus, and typhoid shots by the hospital.

Dr. Nowack said many students visiting Europe this summer were given smallpox shots. These shots are required by law, and students without them would not be able to re-enter the United States. Students touring Europe by bicycle, rather than guided tour, were also given typhoid shots to protect them against contaminated water or milk.

Bellard Takes Leave; Young Named To Post

James C. Young, ex-reserve full-back on the 1956 Bowling Green champion football team, has been announced as the replacement for Bruce Bellard, who will take a year's leave of absence to gain a doctorate degree at Indiana University.

Bellard, who piloted the BG wrestlers to their first MAC crown in history this past winter, was awarded an assistantship on the Bloomington campus, where he has been studying during the past several summers for his degree.

Young, who was graduated from Van Wert High School as an outstanding student and athlete, has been the head coach in track and wrestling at Findlay College this year. He also is an instructor in health and physical education and served as assistant football coach at the school. Like Bellard, he coached his wrestling squad to an undefeated season last winter.

Young attended Ohio State for two years and then received his bachelor's degree in 1957, after two years of study at BG. He also received his master's from Bowling Green in 1958. While working on his master's, he was a graduate assistant in HPE and worked with the freshman football team.

Bellard has been on the BG athletic faculty for 11 years. He is director of the physical education service program and heads the driver-training program. He has served as assistant football coach under Robert H. Whittaker and Doyt Perry.

In 1952, Bellard took over the wrestling team, as head coach.

Linksmen Fifth At OSU Match

Roaring winds and May showers hampered play at the Ohio State Scarlet Golf Course, Monday, but the BG linksmen were able to garner fifth place in the Ohio Inter-collegiate Golf Championships.

Over 115 top-notch collegiate golfers from 23 Ohio Colleges competed in the event.

Perry Lanning, who was dropped to the number three spot this year after holding the top spot for weeks, shot a blistering 73 in the second round to top all the MAC golfers and also set a new BG record for the tourney.

Lanning surpassed Jim Dysinger, who shot a 74 on the same course in 1955, and also topped the old total for the tourney, held by Dysinger. Lanning carded a 80-73 for a total 153, breaking the old mark of 81-74, totaling 155. Lanning was fourth with the 153 in the tourney medal play.

George Bellino, Ohio State, had the best score of the day with a 72-73 for a 145. Par on the course is 71, so Bellino was three over par.

Ohio State topped the team totals with 596. Others in order were: Ohio University, 626, Miami, 638, Youngstown, 649, and Bowling Green, 650.

The other BG scores included: Joe Ungvary, 82-77; Jim Bernicke, 86-77; Harold Warren and Wade Cass, 89-86, each.

"I was disappointed in some of the boys, because I thought they could do much better. We had finished third for the last three years and I had high hopes for that position or even higher. If all the boys combine their efforts and all start playing the type of golf they are capable of, we should really be ready for the MAC Golf Championships, May 22 to 24," summed up Coach Forrest Creason.

The fourth place Bowling Green Falcons play host to the cellar-dwelling Toledo Rockets this afternoon at Bowling Green in the opener of a home-and-home series. Wade Diefenthaler, with a 4-2 mark, will go in the opener against Bobby Meyer, the Rockets' fast-balling southpaw.

In the second game of the series at Toledo tomorrow, Coach Warren Steller will send his prize sophomore righthander, Ed Phillips, to the hill, and Toledo coach Charles Balciulis will counter with another southpaw in Jim Pontsler.

The Rockets opened the season with a 7-2 win over Findlay, but have lost their last 12 in a row, losing 10 in succession in the MAC. Bowling Green, on the other hand, after a poor start, has played better ball lately, winning five in a row, and has pushed its season mark over five-hundred, at 7-5.

All of the Falcon wins have been recorded by two pitchers, Diefenthaler and Phillips, who has a 3-0 record plus an earned-run-average of 1.98, which is the best on the staff. Diefenthaler has been the workhorse of the staff, as he has made seven appearances, pitched 50 innings, and posted a fine 2.88 earned-run-average.

Dick Kuzma, who was leading the team with a .387 average going into the Eastern Michigan games, has collected only one hit in his last 10 trips, shrinking his average to .317. In the last three encounters, first sacker Jim Mason, and also Jim Cordiak, have broken out of the hitting slump that has plagued the team for the whole season.

Coach Balciulis, in his first season at the helm for the Rockets, has a ballclub very thin on experience and reserve strength. Balciulis lost two pitchers, Jerry Eitzman and Dick Farkas, who won 10 games between them; hard hitting Gene Cook; and All-Conference center fielder Walt Martisius.

Colburn Shines On Grid, Court

In room 21 in the Stadium lives one of the outstanding athletes of Bowling Green. Over the door hangs the name of Bob Colburn.

COLBURN

Colburn, a graduate of Dayton Fairmont, won nine letters while in high school. Three of his letters came in football where he was quarterback and elected to the all-league team his last year. In basketball, Colburn was an all-league forward two years in a row. His other three letters came in tennis, in which he was the league singles champion for three years, and a semi-finalist in the state his senior year.

Last year, for Coach Robert Keefe's tennis squad, Colburn compiled a record of 6-6. This year, he was the top returning lettermen on the team and won the number one position. Already this season he has a record of 8-2, with his only losses coming to Western Michigan and Denison. Colburn's doubles partner this season has been sophomore Doug Ganim. They have a combined record of 8-2.

On the gridiron this last season, Colburn quarterbacked the Falcons to third place in the Mid-American Conference with an over-all record of 7-2.

Whittaker Aids BG Athletes On Grid, Oval For 18 Years

In 18 years of coaching at Bowling Green, Bob Whittaker has had many memorable experiences, but feels the highlight of his coaching career is yet to come.

Whittaker came to Bowling Green in 1941 as track coach. The following year he added the job of head football coach. He dropped track in 1947 to concentrate entirely on football, but returned to track in 1948 for one year. David Matthews relieved Whittaker in 1949, so he could once again devote full attention to football. In 1955, Doyt Perry took over the reins on the gridiron and Whittaker became track mentor for the third time in 16 years.

Since 1945, Whittaker has compiled a track record of 24 wins and 17 defeats. One of his best seasons was in 1944, when his team went undefeated and captured the All-Ohio College meet at Ohio Wesleyan. Also that year, his squad was victorious in the Northeastern Ohio AAU title in Berea.

In 14 years as head football coach, Whittaker's teams built up a record of 69-50-6. The first year Whittaker took over as football coach, he had one of his better seasons, with a 8-1-1 record. Since then, his best year came in 1948, when he went undefeated.

A number of Bowling Green greats have been coached by Whittaker. Such men as Will Lytle, who holds the 100-yard dash record of 9.8 seconds, and the record holder of the broad jump, Harold Robinson, with 23'11", have been just a few of the top-notch athletes to come up under Whittaker. On the gridiron, he can recall many outstanding performers, but the one that sticks in his memory is Stan Yoder of the 1940-41 team.

Coach Whittaker is kept busy with track, boating and other duties, but still manages to find time every year for a vacation at Lake Placid, where he enjoys ice skating, skiing, and various other winter sports.

The softball field meet will be held at 3:30 p.m. May 25 on the football field. No pre-tournament entries are required for the meet, which will include throw for distance, and accuracy, hitting for distance, and base-running for speed.

The Man Who Thinks for Himself Knows —

Both Sexes View AWS Style Show; Spring Outfits Featured For Campus

By MARTA MERCER

Versatility and casualness are the keynotes for the campus wardrobe this spring, as was shown in the final program of the "Woman's World" series, a fashion show Thursday night in the Ballroom of the Union. Peg Faze was fashion commentator.

The series has been sponsored by the Union Activities Organization social interest committee and the Association of Women Students.

Highlighting the end of the school year are many spring formals, and the problem is what to wear.

Every smart coed knows that her man will love her in the frothy chiffons, empire waists, gay floral prints, and bright new red and blue shades, and balloon skirted gowns.

Two-piece outfits and shirtwaist dresses, borrowed from the men's styles, are the most practical for our Connie Coed. Skirts may be interchanged with different tops to give variety, while gloves and hats can be added to the shirtwaists for dress-up affairs.

The tailored lines of short over-blouses and pleated skirts may be worn to classes, to the campus job, or on a casual coke date in the Nest. For the soft feminine touch, a frilly sissy blouse can be added to a smart plaid skirt and open vest that should rate a second glance.

Paisley prints, two-piece suits, cloche hats, and dark cottons can be used for many occasions such as those frequent exchange dinners, job interviews, and for church. Candy-striped dresses, cherry fazz pinks, and blue silk prints always make a big hit with the favorite boyfriend. These can also be worn, with the right jewelry and accessories, to teas, church, and dinner.

Participating in the fashion parade were Midge Beckman, Jean Bogan, Carol DeMore, Barbara Dunlap, Christel Froelich, Ann Gallaher, Pauline Gallo, Carole Gruetter, Marie Hobe, Ruthanne Hobson, Nancy Holycross, Roberta Ireland, Donna Kehoe, Barbara Porter, Sharon Porter, Sibyl Preuninger, Loretta Rogers, Judy Schwartz, Betsy Smith, Joan Trotter, Roberta Wolfer, and Barbara Yunis.

THIS BATHINGSUIT, modeled by Roberta Ireland at the AWS Style Show, is this year's fashion answer for sun, wind, water, and leisure hours.

By NICK DELCALZO

The fashion silhouette for 1959 is literally "up" in the air, men! Spotighting the fashion scene will be the Balloon and Empire styles encompassing shorter hemlines and higher waists.

These were only a few of the current trends in the fashion circles which were revealed Monday night at the AWS Style Show.

A sparse crowd of less than 100 persons saw women students model a wide variety of wearing apparel, from pajamas to evening gowns.

Whether the Balloon and the Empire styles will be as short lived as the "sack or chemise" raises a question which the men could help to answer.

The new style, which is sweeping the nation, has an almost knee-length hemline, with a distinctive waist and a clinging bustline, thus revealing more of the figure than that flat-chested fad of a year ago.

But from the feminine perspective, not all women can wear this new creation and still look appealing to a man. Women attempting to wear the Balloon dress will resemble a dirigible if they don't have the proper silhouette.

To prove that the man is the pioneer in fashions, the opposite sex has modified a version of the men's dress shirt into what they call a "shirtwaist" dress. The shirtwaist, a practical and yet versatile creation, is of various fabrics, patterns, and colors.

The dominant colors and patterns for '59 are pastels, bold stripes, florals, and paisley prints, the latter looking like a myriad of squashed butterflies on fabric.

Not only are the dresses becoming briefer and more revealing, but so are the bathing suits. At least the women won't have to struggle to get a sun-tan.

Whether we men could influence any style changes is hard to determine, remember men—"It's a Woman's World."

Students Conduct Poll

Sociology 301 class has been experimenting with polls among the students concerning social problems, according to Dr. Donald Longworth, chairman of the department.

Lakeside Camp Site Of Retreat

Approximately 20 students are traveling to the Methodist Conference Center at Lakeside this week end for the annual Spring Retreat sponsored by the United Christian Fellowship.

The retreat will be centered around the theme "Developing Christian Disciplines."

According to the Rev. Paul Bock, director of UCF, the retreat will not be as formally organized as in previous years, with more time being given to individual thought and small group discussions.

Chuck Lane is the chairman of the retreat; Cynthia Clark is in charge of worship, and Roberta Cruey is in charge of the program.

The students are leaving at 8 a.m. tomorrow and will return to Bowling Green early Sunday.

At The Cinema, Carnation Room

"Desk Set," starring Spencer Tracy and Katherine Hepburn, will be shown at the campus movie tonight and tomorrow night, at 7 and 9:15.

"Desk Set" is a hilarious adventure about a reference department of a television studio where an efficiency expert is planning to install an electronic brain. The women in the department see it replacing them, and get other ideas.

UCF To Hold Group Sessions

The United Christian Fellowship is sponsoring a May Denominational Night Sunday to take the place of the usual Sunday evening program.

Members of UCF will meet at denominational groups at respective places for an evening of fun, according to the Rev. Paul Bock, director of UCF.

Methodist students will meet at the UCF house at 6 p.m. for a program of fellowship and refreshments.

The Presbyterian students will meet at 6:30 p.m. on the picnic area of the University golf course for a picnic.
